

Fergus Cameron

Born in 1950, Fergus grew up on Phillip Island, going to school at Ventnor before completing his secondary education at Scotch College, Melbourne in 1968.

After leaving school he commenced a career as a Stock and Station Agent operating in Victoria and New South Wales.

In 1978 Fergus relocated back to Phillip Island to help expand his family farming enterprise.

In 1984, Fergus became a founding shareholder of the Phillip Island Grand Prix Circuit until it was purchased by Linfox Property Group in 2004. Fergus remains the Managing Director of the circuit.

From 2006 to 2009, Fergus was the Australian Representative of Fédération Internationale de l'Automobile (FIA) and has been a Committee Member of Confederation of Australian Motorsport (CAMS) since 1996.

Chairman of Destination Phillip Island in 2014 and 2015.

P.O. Box 683, Cowes Victoria 3922
Email: pitba@visitphillipisland.com.au
Phone/Fax +61 3 5952 2729
Web: visitphillipisland.com

